

Sister Dead, Woman Becomes Hysterical At Railroad Station

Returning to this city this morning to comfort her mother and attend the funeral of her sister, who lies dead at her mother's home, 145 Fifth street, Miss Grace O'Connell, of Wallingford, became hysterical when she alighted from a train at the railroad station and was taken to the Fifth street residence in an ambulance.

Miss O'Connell, who is 35 years of age, alighted from a train at about 5:30 this morning. As she was walking across the platform preparing to walk down to Fairfield avenue, travelers were startled to see her throw up her hands and become violently hysterical.

Dr. S. I. Aranki, of the emergency hospital, was called. He managed to quiet Miss O'Connell, but she was so weak from the effects of the attack that she had to be taken to her mother's home in the ambulance.

Nobody Blamed For Death of Anderson

Coroner John J. Phelan has found no criminal liability for the death of Otto J. Anderson of this city, who was crushed in a machine at the Coulter & McKenzie plant. He held a hearing this morning at which employees of the plant testified. The testimony showed that Anderson was caught in a machine. After a visit to the plant the coroner found the machine was in good order and that the accident was due to carelessness by Anderson.

An embargo was placed by the Pennsylvania Railroad on shipments of freight originating on all lines east of Pittsburgh except perishables, foodstuffs for human consumption and coal.

LUNCHEON ON ICE FEATURE OF PARTY GIVEN BY BROKAW'S, EXPERT SOCIETY SKATERS

BROKAW LUNCHEON ON THE ICE AT MILLNECK, L.I.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brokaw, the society couple who are known in America and Europe for their skill in figure skating on the ice, had a large skating party at their home at Millneck, on Long Island. The ice was in perfect condition and the air was crisp enough to make the sport ideal for those who indulged in it. The guests were from various colonies on Long Island and from New York.

Music was furnished for the dancing and figure skating by a hurdy gurdy, which was played by Mr. Brokaw and all the guests, or most of them, in turn.

Although most of the guests had been skating since early morning, no one seemed willing to stop for the luncheon that was served on the bank of the lake, as is shown in the picture. (Mr. Brokaw was seated in the center.) Some of them took time enough to run in and have a bite or two. Even a snowstorm which blew up at the time did not lessen the ardor of the skaters, but seemed rather to increase the enthusiasm of all.

Mr. Bror Meyer of St. Moritz and Miss Emmy Bergfeldt gave exhibitions of fancy skating, and Mr. and Mrs. Brokaw did some clever figure skating.

The Little Misses Barbara and Minn Brokaw also enjoy the sport and are fast becoming as adept as their parents in the art of skating.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Anson W. Burchard, Mr. Metram Work, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fair, Mrs. Fuller Potter, Mrs. Charles Van Rensselaer, Comte and Comtesse Jean de la Greze, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cass Ledyard, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Huntington Norton, Mr. and Mrs. H. Carleton, Miss Julia Carleton, Mr. Walter Russell, Miss Eleanor Sparks, Mr. Stephen Van Rensselaer, Miss Beatrice Batterman and Miss Alice Beadleston.

OBITUARY

Prefers "Solitary" To Confinement In The Jail Workshop

Boston, Jan. 27.—Jesse Pomeroy expressed preference to remain in solitary confinement instead of going to work with other prisoners is not taken very seriously at Charlestown state prison. It was said at the warden's office today that the plan did not contemplate the prisoner's entrance to the workshop before Monday, when it was expected Pomeroy would be found to be amenable to the rules of the institution as he has been during his 41 years of close confinement.

When Pomeroy was informed yesterday that the executive council had relaxed his punishment to the extent of affording him the privileges allowed to other life prisoners, he expressed disappointment that a full pardon had not been granted. He declared that unless he could be free he preferred the isolation of the cell that he has occupied since a bo.

HALF CENTURY CLUB TO HOLD RECEPTION

The mid-winter meeting of the Half Century club, Valhalla, No. 1, will be held in Magna Charta hall, Fairfield avenue, tomorrow afternoon. A reception to visitors from Hartford will be held in the morning. An initiation will follow and the annual winter banquet will take place at 2 o'clock.

BIND OVER "HIGHWAYMEN"

Bert Manchester and Ernest Had dock termed "Keystone Highwaymen" by the police, who were arrested while assisting a Western bandit, and had guns thrust in belts about their waist, for the theft of a motorcycle, were held by Judge Frederic Bartlett in bonds of $1,000 for the February term of the superior court this morning. They claim to reside in Courtland street.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Fred S. Goodman, Y. M. C. A. international secretary and associate of John R. Mott, will speak in the Y. M. C. A. at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Goodman will speak on "Service, a Burden, a Privilege, or an Obligation?" This talk will be the first of a series of five on the subject "The Young Man and Service."

Mrs. Vera Bertillon, contralto soloist of the First Methodist church choir, will assist with the service. Harold Weed will be at the piano and H. F. Longway will lead the singing with the cornet.

After the meeting, at 5:30, a Friendship Tea will be held in the association's banquet hall. The tea will be preceded by an old fashioned "feed." A most delightful social hour is planned for. At the tea Mr. Goodman will give in an intimate, personal way, a short talk, "The Challenge of Jesus' Friendship."

All men of Bridgeport, members and non-members, especially new-comers and strangers are cordially invited to attend these meetings for men.

The Public Service Commission ordered an investigation into the rates charged for electricity by the Bronx Gas & Electric Co. and the Westchester Lighting Co., to begin Feb. 7.

ASK COURT TO JUDGE VALIDITY OF STRIKE ORDER

Louisville, Jan. 27.—Whether members of a great railroad brotherhood may invoke the aid of the courts to stop a threatened strike regularly ordered by their organization and still retain membership in the order will be determined in Louisville on Feb. 19, according to announcement here today.

Fourteen members of the Order of Railway Conductors of America, employees of the passenger department of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Co., have been cited to appear before the Louisville branch of the Order of Railway Conductors and show cause why they should not be expelled for resisting last September, by legal means, service of a strike order on certain Louisville & Nashville employees when a nation-wide railroad strike was deemed imminent.

The petitioners asserted the strike order was illegal because it had not been sanctioned by two-thirds of the O. R. C. membership and, moreover, would work a national calamity.

Germans Now Force Captured French Civilians to Labor

Paris, Jan. 27.—Seven hundred thousand inhabitants of the invaded regions in the north of France are engaged in forced labor for the Germans, according to M. Dibudeville, mayor of the town of Corchy, who has just arrived from the occupied region at Evian.

The mayor's estimate, he says, is based on careful, serious calculation, taking as a basis the numbers of inhabitants personally known by him as having been taken from the communes in his region. No distinctions are made as to age or sex in the choice of the forcibly enrolled laborers, M. Dibudeville says.

Would Take Americans Five to Thirty Years to Make War Supplies

Washington, Jan. 27.—Although the United States possesses a productive equipment in excess of that of any other two powers, it would take from five to thirty years to produce its own munitions for a great war, as at present organized, Howard E. Coffin, member of the advisory committee of the National Defense council, today told the Congress of Constructive Patriotism.

Peace Rumor Sends Down Wheat Price

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Severe breaks in the price of wheat resulted today from heavy selling, due largely to peace rumors. The sharpest decline was in the May option, which fell in some cases more than seven cents, touching $1.74 1/4 as against $1.81 1/4 to $1.81 3/4 at yesterday's close. Remarkable absence of export buying contributed in a notable way to the weakness.

MOOSE TO INITIATE.

Bridgeport lodge, No. 239, L. O. O. M., will initiate a class of 1,000 members in Colonial hall, Fairfield avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Capt. Robert Lewis, in command of the degree team, will present some new and intricate movements with the initiatory work. State officials are expected to be present.
